> I'd like a good-looking America please!

Acting Cool
GOOD-LOOKING?

France is particularly sparkly!

>The Cover of Specials 2

Thank you for taking a look at it!
Come to think of it, I don't really draw America wearing this kind of uniform much.

>Please show me a smiling Romano

You want Romano with a bright smile? In a few weeks time there'll...cough cough

>Can we expect to see Augustus soon!?

Oh you mean that good-looking chap who hates thunder and sucks at fighting and has a best friend who's too good to be true?

^ Some of their designs changed quite a bit

> Those rough sketches of Mini Characters you posted on your blog, will they be published in the character introduction page in the future?

The ones I posted on my blog are alternative versions in different poses and costumes, but I will be gradually adding more finalized illustrations in the Jump+ character introduction page! Actually there are never-before-seen illustrations waiting to be published there soon
